Uniform policy

Wellington College International Hangzhou has a uniform policy, which all pupils and parents need to adhere to. We believe that our school uniform promotes a sense of pride in our school and solidarity between pupils. School uniforms are expected to be worn by the pupil appropriately, be cleaned on a regular basis, and they cannot deviate from the style and colour choices. Pupils are expected to present themselves in a neat, clean, and professional manner at all times. Pupils are permitted to wear informal dress of their own choice at specified times by their class teacher or house tutor, such clothing should be suitable for a co-educational environment.

The school uniform and sports kits are available exclusively from the uniform shop within the school, which carries the complete line of pupils' uniforms and PE kits.

The uniform shop is open during the term time. Please refer to the School website for opening times. Uniform Shop contact number: 0571-8239 6397
